Welcome

Welcome to glasssglobal Plants

glasssglobal Plants is your gateway to the international glass producing industry.

We have collected data from glass producers worldwide including production capacities, the number of furnaces, furnace types, products, furnace suppliers and years of construction.

Moreover, we have compiled financials from global players, production data, demographic data for countries as well as import and export data, and we have elaborated a forecast about future glass consumption in all global regions.

What's in it for you?

glasssglobal Plants provides you with the access to these data. Find potential customers according to your personal selection within a minute, find companies to approach, display them on a map and contact them directly.

Ask for your free test access using the button below and enjoy the ease of use of glasssglobal Plants.
